BEE FRIENDLY

Denver Golf's environmental friendly initiatives

This month our Bee Friendly program highlights our energy conservation practices.

Golf courses in urban areas are in a unique position to support habitats for various pollinators. Denver Golf has made the commitment to creating and maintaining more pollinator friendly areas on our course. Did you know that honeybees account for approximately 50% of the world's pollination? With this in mind, starting in the spring of 2016, Denver Golf has begun housing honeybees at both Willis Case and Wellshire golf courses. This will be our fourth year and we are excited to continue to grow our hives and develop plantings that help not only our bee colonies but also other pollinators.

COURSE UPDATES

Overland Temporary Green

Hole #5 at Overland will have a temporary green located in the approach while it recovers from snow and ice damage caused by unusual thaw and freeze cycles. The temporary green will be placed in the line of approach. We will have the permanent green open by May 1st or earlier if possible.

During this time, if a player's ball lands in or touches the white circle of the temporary green a player can choose one of the following options:

- Play it as it lies and putt out to finish the hole
- Take an automatic two putt

We have begun recovery in other areas on the course that sustained snow and ice damage, particularly in the areas where trees cast a shadow resulting in prolonged snow and ice cover. These areas are being treated with over-seeding, fertilization and irrigation. We appreciate your patience while this grass is recovering and are sorry for any inconvenience this may cause!

City Park Redesign Updates

Work continues on the driving range and the First Tee facility, including final grading, irrigation, topsoil and seeding.

Golf course irrigation is operational where seed and new trees have been installed — the water being used is recycled and provided by Denver Water.

Construction of the new clubhouse continues. Mechanical/electrical rough in is nearly completed. Drywall is going up inside the clubhouse and exterior brick is largely completed. Concrete paving, sidewalks and curbs are ongoing. Roofing is completed and glazing continues.

Curb and gutter installation is nearly complete and the parking lot will be paved in April.

City Park Golf Course is currently closed and will reopen in 2019 after construction is complete and the turf is established.

Denver Golf is proud to introduce our new staff! Congratulations to all our new team members!
